

Devin Daly
Managing Director, Business Development
HomeBridge Financial Services

Mr. Daly is the Managing Director, Business Development at HomeBridge Financial Services where he is responsible for forward-looking technology and business-process strategy. Mr. Daly has a track record of successfully driving revenue growth across financial services, telecommunications, and enterprise software companies. His expertise covers sales, operations, and enterprise-software development. Previously, Mr. Daly served as the Chief Revenue Officer at Vantage Production and as Ellie Mae's vice president of solution sales and client services.