

Pierre Debbas, Esq.
Partner
Romer Debbas LLP

Pierre E. Debbas is a co-managing partner and founding member of Romer Debbas LLP. Pierre has extensive experience in the areas of real estate and general business law. His practice focuses on the purchase and sale of commercial and residential real estate in New York City, commercial leasing, real estate related financing matters, representation of cooperative and condominium boards, foreign investors and small businesses. Over the course of his career, Pierre has been involved in thousands of real estate transactions with an aggregate value of over a billion dollars.

Pierre is frequently quoted in a variety of national and regional publications including the New York Times, Bloomberg TV and Wall Street Journal. He is regularly a featured lecturer at several of the city's largest real estate brokerage firms. In addition, Pierre is certified by the New York Department of State to teach continuing education courses on the topics of residential and commercial real estate.

In 2014, at age 34, Pierre was named in Super Lawyers which lists the top 5% of all lawyers in their respective practice areas as nominated by their peers and he has continued to be selected for this honor every year since. Prior to that, in 2013 Pierre was named in the Rising Stars section of Super Lawyers. Rising Stars lists the top 2.5% of lawyers under the age of 40 in their practice area. In addition, Pierre has been named in New York Magazine's Leaders in the Law as one of the top attorneys in NYC.