

Ashley Gravano

VP of Product Solutions at Mortgage Cadence
MortgageCadence.com

As former Vice President of National Sales & Marketing at Paradigm Title Group, Ashley Gravano lead a team of client engagement executives, developed new client relationships and supported all existing clients for the company. She acted as a key advisor to the president on critical changes in the competitive landscape.

Gravano brings over two decades of success and experience in the title and settlement industry, devising and executing strategies while leading teams that have produced conclusive results, valuable business partnerships and solid growth avenues for real estate products and services. With this experience, she became Vice President of Product Solutions at Mortgage Cadence.

Gravano is now VP of Product Solutions at Mortgage Cadence and serves as an influencer on social media outlets such as Instagram. She is well known throughout the mortgage industry for her online presence.