WALL STREET MORTGAGE BANKERS LTD. DBA POWER EXPRESS

NMLS#4904

Keith Kantrowitz is the owner of Wall Street Mortgage Bankers Ltd. dba Power Express, one of the largest residential lenders in the nation.

A graduate from Bernard Baruch College in New York, Mr. Kantrowitz earned his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Highly ambitious and motivated, Mr. Kantrowitz started out as a licensed Real Estate Broker and in 1976 transitioned into the private mortgage banking arena when he opened Power Express. Power Express is amongst the ranks of leading national mortgage lenders.

Over the years, Mr. Kantrowitz has owned in excess of 60 residential and commercial properties as well as Manhattan retail stores and mortgage bank branches all over the country. While he has made excellent business decisions and had produced a strong support network, Mr. Kantrowitz is successful due to his personal involvement in managing and overseeing all of the entities of which his enterprise is comprised.

In addition to his professional accomplishments, Mr. Kantrowitz is very active in the community and donates much of his time and efforts to philanthropic causes. He acts as Trustee at Congregation Mt. Sinai in Brooklyn. Mr. Kantrowitz is an active member of the Advisory Board of Rabbis and sponsors many Patrolmen's Benevolent Association functions. He is also the sole sponsor of the Mayor's Interfaith Annual Breakfast.

Keith Kantrowitz is not only a successful national businessman; he has taken on a leadership position to promote local community growth on a national level. Both his professional and altruistic accomplishments are exemplary and command the title of National Businessman of the Year.
