

Ken Markison, Esq.

Of Counsel Weiner Brodsky Kider PC; Formerly Vice President and Regulatory Counsel, MBA

Ken is Of Counsel in Weiner Brodsky Kider's regulatory compliance practice where he brings more than 45 years of experience in housing and mortgage legislation, regulation and litigation.

Until September 30, 2017, Ken was Vice President and Regulatory Counsel of the Mortgage Bankers Association where he worked on and represented the industry in the development of the Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Dodd-Frank) and the rules under it including the Ability to Repay, TILA RESPA Integrated Disclosures (TRID), Loan Originator Compensation and Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA) rules. At MBA, he also worked on matters under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), Truth in Lending Act (TILA), Fair Housing Act, S.A.F.E. Mortgage Licensing Act and virtually every other law governing the industry.

Before coming to MBA, Ken served for more than 32 years in HUD's Office of General Counsel where he became Assistant General Counsel for Government Sponsored Enterprises/RESPA. In addition to developing RESPA legislation, rules and guidance, he was one of the principal architect of HUD's GSE Rules.

Ken is a frequent speaker and trainer on mortgage lending issues before industry and other groups. He is also a fellow of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers.
