

Mike Ramin
Director of Business Development
Sharestates

Michael Ramin is the head of Business Development at Sharestates. Since taking over this position in 2014, Michael has created alliances with some of the country's largest real estate developers and investors. To date, Michael's team has closed over $2.2 Billion in loan volume nationwide.

Prior to Sharestates, Michael managed over 4,000 commercial and industrial properties for the Metropolitan Transportation Authority of New York. Michael negotiated the acquisition and disposition of properties requisite to expanding and improving the transportation network for the MTA. Michael's extensive knowledge and experience in sales and marketing have helped Sharestates become one of the nation's largest private lenders in the real estate industry.