

Rebecca S. Singh, Esq. 's

Corporate Immigration Attorney (specializing in EB-5 and other global programs), Mona Shah & Associates, Global rebecca@mshahlaw.com

As an advanced EB-5 practitioner, with a litigation background, Rebecca works with project developers as well as individual entrepreneurs. She is responsible for analyzing and preparing project documents not only for RC designation, but also for direct and regional center EB-5 projects as well as I-829 petitions. Rebecca trouble shoots for other attorneys and is well versed in USCIS compliance. Rebecca is highly proficient at investor petitions, counseling clients through all stages of the EB-5 program. She has successfully filed complex source of funds issues from clients worldwide. Rebecca also has extensive EB-5 marketing experience, authoring numerous published articles, appearing and producing podcasts and other media streams, and traveling internationally for global conferences. Rebecca is admitted to practice law in the State of New York and before the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. She a member of the President Advisory Council and the Public Policy Committee for Invest In the USA (IIUSA) as well as an active member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA).