

Matthew VanFossen
CEO, Absolute Home Mortgage Corporation

Matthew VanFossen is the Chief Executive Officer of Absolute Home Mortgage Corporation. He joined Absolute in 2011 bringing years of leadership, technology expertise, and executive management experience to the company.

Over a decade in residential mortgage lending and overseeing over 5 billion in retail originations, Matthew knows what truly drives a successful mortgage operation. A passion for technology and strong interests in compliance and system automation give Matthew an inherent leg up on the competition. It's not just about having great processes, it's how well you integrate compliance technology into those processes, while educating the workforce, ensuring proper implementation.

Known as a disruptive thinker, Matthew has worked to drive the vision and strategy of Absolute to the next generation of mortgage lending. He manages with a hands on approach and enjoys working closely with his amazing team of dedicated mortgage professionals.

Matthew has landed national Coverage with real estate boards as a Realtor business coach Including, PCBOR, ECBOR, RAPB, GTAR. Over the past 4 years he has successfully trained over 1,000 Realtors on advanced social media marketing. In addition to his extensive Mortgage experience, Matthew is a renowned public speaker. In 2015 & 2016 Matthew was recognized as one of 40 Under 40: The 40 Most Influential Mortgage Professionals Under 40 NMP Magazine.