

Joshua Weinberg is a nationally recognized speaker, author, consultant, and leader in mortgage lending; specializing in integrating compliance and technology. He is currently Executive Vice President of Compliance, and has lead compliance since 2009 at First Choice Loan Services Inc., a Berkshire Bank Company, America's Most Exciting Bank®

He works closely with Federal and State Regulators including the CFPB, FDIC, CSBS/AARMR, and the HUD/FHA and participates with many industry associations. He is the immediate past Chair of the Mortgage Bankers Association's Regulatory Compliance Committee, a member of ABA's Residential Markets Committee, Past Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors for MISMO, a member of the Registered Institutions Working Group for the NMLS, and an Advisory Board Member and Compliance Expert for Mortgage Compliance Magazine.

Weinberg also consults privately for some of the top mortgage technology vendors in the country. Previously he worked for a major LOS vendor where he was in charge of Compliance, Government Loan programs and Reverse Mortgages. He has worked in retail banking environments and also worked independently as the owner of a mortgage broker company.